CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

I am deeply thankful to the Lord for His abounding grace. I hav had the humbling honor of serving as Conference Superintenden since the General Conference in August, 1989. I am indebted to m predecessor, Reverend James D. Leggett, Assistant Genera Superintendent for his generous help in my getting established i this office.

I am grateful to my wife, Sylvia, and our family for thei prayers and constant support in the work of the Lord's grea church.

I have been privileged to work with a Conference Board who ar men in whom an excellent spirit prevails. I am appreciative of th warm fellowship I have been given by the gracious ministers an laity of the North Carolina Conference.

The headquarters staff have been most cooperative in workin with me for the good of the Saviour's church and this conference My secretary, Mrs. Delores Reynolds, has been of inestimable valu to me in these short months.

I will give a more complete report at the Quadrennial Sessio of the North Carolina Conference on June 14, 1990.

The State Of The Conference

I praise the Lord for all He is doing among us. However, w must work together to allow the Holy Spirit to do the work in u and through us He wants to do. We have experienced some increase and some decreases in 1989. Please note the following statistics:

	1988	1989	Gain/Loss
Church Membership	18,241	18,566	G 325
S. S. Membership	21,621	21,366	L 255
S. S. Average Attendance	11,758	11,596	L 162
Youth Ministries	10,568	9,605	L 963
Women's Ministries Mem.	3,909	2,609	L1,300

Let us all join together in an all-out effort to be conscious of the needs of people. We must be increasingly sensitive to thei cry. We must witness to them continually of God's love and powe to meet every need.

We are indebted to those who are responsible to lead the various phases of our conference. We owe them our prayers, our love and our cooperative support. We join them in our responsibility for the work of God among us.

Reverend Bobby Forehand, Christian Education Director, and the efficient board and other personnel who serve with him are splendidly dedicated to the task assigned them. They have diligently presented direction to the numerous endeavors of the Christian Education ministry. They are providing for our spiritual enrichment. Rallies, youth camps, workshops, and so many other opportunities are afforded us through their efforts. Royal Rangers, the ministry to boys, continues to be one of the apparently most effective ministries of the Department of Christian Education.

Rev. D. Chris Thompson, Evangelism Director and the dedicated men of the Evangelism Board lead our efforts to establish new churches and enhance our witness to unsaved people everywhere. The District Evangelism unit men have contributed so much to this outreach. Brother Thompson assisted me in organizing the Sonlight Church in Leland in December. He has been so helpful to Pastor Vince Moore and the good people there. We also saw the beginnings of a work among ethnic groups as Brother Thompson worked with some Koreans in Fayetteville.

Mr. Joe Strickland has touched many lives in his desire to reach men for the Lord. Brother Joe has been used of the Holy Spirit as the Conference Leader of our Men's Fellowship.

The Women's Ministries have always been a valuable asset to us. Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson, President, and the committed Women's Ministries Board with their District Directors have led us into so many worthy endeavors for our Lord. They do so many things that space will not allow their mention here, but I must commend them for their leadership in keeping our people involved in the support of the Falcon Children's Home Harvest Train. GEMS, directed by Mrs. Karen Barnhill is a beautiful part of the Women's Ministries Department, too.

We enjoyed the best year ever in World Missions involvement. We had more churches giving regularly to missions than ever before. Our World Evangelism Offering at the Falcon Campmeeting grew substantially over that of 1988. We gave our largest total Annual Missions Amount ever, some $340,000.00. I have experienced a deepening vision of the world-wide picture regarding Evangelism during the time I have served as Conference Missions Director since 1982.

Reverend W. M. Wooten has led us in prayerful support of WIN: World Intercession Network. Some of our churches have caught the vision and joined this relatively new link of the church. I trust others will soon become involved in this powerful enterprise.

Our Future

The Holy Spirit has used many dear people and methods operation to bring us to this hour. However, our illustrious pas must be our launching pad for a glorious future in the plan of G for the conference and the entire International Pentecosta Holiness Church. A few years ago our denominational leadersh challenged us with the evangelistic thrust of Target 2,000. believe the Lord gave them the plan. Together we will reach tha goal this conference adopted of a minimum annual increase of 5% each area of membership and attendance. Our vision must expand! see a drastic need for some God Called Church Planters; clergy a lay people who will step out by faith and become committed starting new churches. I perceive that a soul-stirring, churc reviving Holy Ghost renewal is the chief answer to lethargical complacent ministers and churches. The norm for the New Testame Church is to live and labor for the Master in a constant fire revival purity that will powerfully produce results that only t Holy Spirit is capable of performing among a people who are total committed to the purposes of our Eternal Father.

Our Lord reigns! Let us go forward as He directs; and He directing!

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT
June 15, 1989

Jesus said, "I am going to my Father's house to prepare a lace for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will ome back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I n. You know the way to the place where I am going."

Today we pause to honor three of our fellow-servants who not nly knew the way and helped many others to find that way, but have raveled it themselves all the way to heaven. And, now they are in ne presence of our Lord forever.

Reverend Walton M Hudnell

W. M. Hudnell was born in Beaufort County on April 28, 1914 to yman Hudnell and his wife, the former Miss Ruth Kinion. On July , 1935 he wed Miss Cora Guthrie. This lovely and devoted ompanion stood faithfully by him throughout the remainder of his ife.

Brother Hudnell was an excellent preacher of the Gospel. He as gifted to preach. He possessed extraordinary ability to study ne Scripture and proclaim the message of Jesus Christ.

He started pastoring in the North Carolina Conference in 1942 : the Kenly Church. His last pastorate was at Snow Hill after nich he officially retired. His other pastorates were Scotland eck, Roper, St. Pauls, Belhaven, Swanquarter, Wades Point, armville, Carson Memorial, Hodges Chapel and Robersonville.

This faithful servant of the Lord was in demand as preacher in evivals and Campmeetings. He will especially be remembered for is sermons on the Revelation.

On November 31, 1988, he heard the voice of His Lord calling im to his eternal reward.

The glorious scenes which he preached about Revelation, he has ow seen for himself. I am sure as he gazes upon the glory of God nd the City of the Lamb. he says, "the half has not been told."

MISS ETHEL STRICKLAND

God gave a special blessing to the work of the Kingdom and the entecostal Holiness Church when He gave a baby girl to Rev. and rs. C. B. Strickland on July 9, 1900. They named he Ethel Lucy nd her name has become synonymous with devoted service in the ngdom of God.

Sister Ethel, as she was affectionately known, was a most markable woman in her separation the the call of God, her service the Kingdom and her deep spirituality. Early in life she felt hat God had called her to be a missionary and she separated rself to pursue the calling of God. She was saved at the age of velve in a prayer meeting conducted by Mrs. Florence Goff. At fifteen she felt the definite call to China as a missionary. I was a call that would guide and govern her life.

As a young woman she taught at both Holmes and Frankli Springs Institute. Between terms in China, Miss Ethel pastored Oa Ridge Church for two years. She also served as Dean of Women a Holmes. When Mrs. Lila Berry finished her first term as the firs President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Sister Ethel succeeded her a President. But it was as a missionary that Miss Ethel was bes known. She first went to China in 1929 and stayed until 1936. He second term was from 1947 to 1958 and her last term was fro 1963-1968.

Even as she retired as a missionary, she maintained a kee interest in the missionary work of the Pentecostal Holiness Church

On Wednesday morning, January 25, 1989 Miss Ethel Stricklan heard the heavenly voice say, "Your Master is calling you home. For most of her eighty-eight years she had been preparing for thi memorable event.

Reverend W. E. Thompson

On July 18, 1909, a son was born into the home of Jim ar Amanda Thompson; they named him William Everett Thompson. Whe Everett was very young his family moved to Georgia and later bac to Richmond, Virginia where he attended school and graduated fro high school. Later his family moved to the Wilmington area.

In 1934, William (Bill) Turner, came to Wilmington to conduc a revival. Everett was saved during the week and on Sunday he wer to the Pentecostal Holiness Church. In 1936 he received license i the North Carolina Conference and in 1938 was ordained.

God gave Everett a wonderful wife and helpmate, Miss Paulir Satterfield. Known to most of us as "Miss Polly". In 1963, Go called Miss Polly home. Soon thereafter God gave him anothe lovely and devoted companion, Mrs. Lillian S. Lewis, she remair with us today.

For over forty years W. E. Thompson has preached and pastore across Eastern North Carolina. He has preached in a number c states in evangelistic meetings. While living in Whiteville h served as an assistant to I.H. Presley and served two mission Elizabethtown and Lake View. In 1938, he was assigned the Circu of Kenly, Moore's Chapel and Niagara. His other pastorate included New Bern First, Person Street, Roanoke Rapids First Lumberton First, Oak Street (Goldsboro), Tarboro First, Greenvil First, Kinston First, Wilson First, and Wilmington First.

Brother Thompson served in various positions in th conference including membership on the Sunday School Board ar eight years as a conference board membe

Though he retired in 1976, Brother Tompson continued t preach. He stayed busy most Sundays filling the pulpit fo ministers. He preached a number of revivals, and served as inter astor for churches until a pastor could be assigned to the church.

He did not stop preaching until health conditions forced him o stop. Even then he constantly talked about how much he wanted o preach.

In the early hours of Friday morning, September 16, 1988, the aster called His ministering servant home to his reward.

Respectfully submitted,
T. Elwood Long.

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Today, we pause to express appreciation to our Sisters and Brothers for a job well done. They have labored faithfully at their calling, and today they exchange the heavy robe of responsibility they have born for these many years, for a lighter robe of responsibility.

They have not forsaken the call to minister; but are continuing in a new vein, sometimes at a greater pace than before. They have now become available to fill pulpits for other pastors while they go aside for rest. They conduct revivals, preach homecomings, conduct weddings and funerals much as they have done throughout their careers.

RETIRED? NEVER! They have only shifted to a lighter responsibility. They will not retire until they hear that final call to come up higher. Lest we should forget these who have labored so faithfully, remember that if the Lord should tarry, you and I too will stand where these stand. So let us be sure to call on them for those occasions in which we can use their expertise in assisting us bear our heavy robes of responsibilities.

REVEREND EARL GRAYSON MARSHBURN

Rev. Marshburn was born on March 11, 1924. On May 14, 1942 he married Miss Myrtle Fisher of Verona, North Carolina. Two sons were born to that union: Thomas Earl, who now resides in Greenville, N.C., and Steven Ray, who presently resides in Jacksonville, NC. The Marshburns have three grandchildren: Angelo, Steven Jr., and Stacy.

Bro. Marshburn received Missions Workers License in 1972. He served as supply Pastor of the Verona Church in 1974, was licensed in 1975 and assigned to pastor the Verona church. He has remained the Pastor of the Verona church until June of 1989.

Bro. Marshburn was bi-vocational during these years. He retired from Marine Chevrolet and Cadillac Company after 30 years of employment, much of that time as Warranty Clerk and Manager of Truck Division.

We salute you Bro. Marshburn for your faithfulness to your call from God over these years.

REVEREND SHERRILL ALLEN POPE

Bro. Pope was born in Dunn, NC July 4, 1926. On March 29, 1947 he was married to Miss Lois Neighbors. The Lord blessed them with six sons: Sherrill, Harvey, Jon, Charles, Michael, Jothan and one daughter Sharon. Bro. Pope was saved in the fall of 1952. He was later called to preach and was ordained in 1972.

He was instrumental in organizing the Johnson Memorial church which is now the Midway P. H. Church. He pastored Trinity Pentecostal Holiness Church for 22 years and the Carleigh church for over 2 years. Bro. Pope was a bi-vocational minister. He retired from Coca-Cola in 1978 after 30 years with the Company. he has been self-employed since 1978.

He testifies that he has no complaints with the church or the conference and he has enjoyed his work for God.

He expressed special gratitude for a faithful and supportive wife who has been a great source of encouragement to him through all the years. Our heart felt appreciation goes to you Bro. Pope for your faithfulness to the ministry God gave to you.

REVEREND HENRY PASCAL WOODARD

Bro. Woodard was born August 22, 1924 in Pamlico County. On December 20, 1947 he married Miss Alice Dickson.

The Woodards have three children: Floyd, Angela and Pascal and seven grand-children. Bro. Woodard was converted in August 1949 and licensed to preach in 1952. While he was a bi-vocational pastor working with the Federal Government for 31 years, he also very capably served the following churches: Sneads Ferry, Swanquarter, Calvary and for the past 23 years he has pastored Reelsboro.

Today we express appreciation to this respected man of God for his faithful service to our Lord and His church.

Brethren, the record of your active ministry is written. it is in the records of God. That record is not complete, for those men and women who have officially retired from the conference are making tremendous contributions in supply pastoring, evangelizing, and serving as assistants to the pastors in some of the churches.

Your church is deeply grateful for your ministry and for the care which you have exercised in faithfully fulfilling your vows of ordination. May the precious memories of your years of sacrificial service and fruitful labor be blessed and hallowed.

And now, as you yield your official responsibilities in the active ministry of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, be assured that the years that are yet to be, may be filled with good works and become the crown of all your ministry, bringing glory and honor to you and to the church you love so dearly.

The Conference and churches will look to you for spiritual guidance and godly example. Young brethren in the ministry will continue to seek and respect your counsel.

We love you. God bless you richly in his grace.

Response -- Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson, N.C.W.M. President

Congregational choruses led by Mrs. Bonita Spain.

Devotion was given by Mrs. Ruth Jones, Past NCWM Vice-President and Education Director.

President Mary Belle Johnson gave the State of the NCWM report. She thanked Holmes College of the Bible for providing programs for the convention and Emmanuel College for providing the packet envelopes.

Dollie Davenport, General W.M. President, spoke about the upcoming General WM Convention to be held in Oklahoma in August.

Karon Barnhill, NC GEMS Director, spoke regarding the GEMS program in the North Carolina conference.

Rev. Raymond Potter, representing the General Missions Department, spoke on the People-to-People and the Mug-a-Month programs.

Mrs. Johnson explained the packet materials and noted that certification of achievement could be picked up at the table in front of the auditorium. She presented the Growth Incentive Award of $100 to the Alert WM; 1st runner-up of $15 to Vaughans Chapel; and 2nd runner-up of $10 to Midway.

District Directors were introduced and presented with gifts of appreciation. They are as follows:

Fayetteville District - Margie Teachey
Goldsboro District - Dorothy Boyette
Greenville District - Faye Jackson
New Bern District - Joy Bowers
Tarboro District - Doris Morgan
Raleigh District - Leota Ward
Whiteville District - Susan Whittenton
Williamston District - Brenda Barefoot

Mrs. Faye Leggett, Minister's Wives Fellowship Director and General Board Member, and Mrs. Gail Blalock, NCWM Historian, were recognized.

Mrs. Janice Massengill gave the Memoirs Report.

Leadership Workshops were held in the Cafeteria Building with Mary Belle Johnson addressing the presidents and Mrs. Linda Thomas addressing the secretary-treasurers.

Promotional Workshops were held in the auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Westa Barefoot. Rev. W.A. Mills represented Holmes College of the Bible, and Mr. Ron White represented Emmanuel College in presenting the programs and needs of the schools.

Following the workshops, The Capital Church Trio sang special music.

Mrs. Regenia Whitfield, Education Director for NCWM, introduced the program. Holmes College of the Bible was represented by Mr. Billy Rose, a recent graduate who lives in North Carolina, and a trio of young men who had recently graduated. Emmanuel was represented by a group of their students in the drama department who did several skits.

All alumni of Holmes and Emmanuel were asked to stand and be recognized.

Monetary Love Gifts to the schools were received in a Treasure Chest in the front of the auditorium from the local WM groups present. The gift amounted to $1,474.00.

Following announcements, Mrs. Westa Barefoot, NCWM Vice-President, gave the benediction.

The floral arrangement was given in honor of Mrs. Ruth Jones, Mrs. Ruth Mills and the Greenville First Women's Ministries. They have contributed the largest Feast of Ingathering offering each year.

NCWM PRESIDENT'S REPORT
1988-1989

Personal

The women of the North Carolina Conference Women's Ministries entered the year with zeal and enthusiasm. They express desires and willingness to make this a great year. This has been an asset to my ability to serve as your president the past twelve months.

I equate the NC Women's Ministries with any conference W.M. in our denomination. I can do this with no hesitation. I have talked with other conference presidents, made comparisons and feel confident we rank at the top in many areas of ministry.

This forty-fifth convention marks another year of involvement. This includes your leadership and participation in many ministries and projects throughout the year. It includes all women in each local group. Together we can and are working toward helping our denomination accomplish our Target 2000 goals.

I sense praise when I read a report stating a local W.M. has increased in membership by 200%. Our ladies are beginning to realize the ministry potential in each local W.M. - this is evident by the letters and reports of various ministries they are being called into. It is so important to equip our ladies for all types of ministry.

The challenge of leadership is one that requires direction. I daily seek His direction for the North Carolina Women's Ministries.

You have allowed me to serve you this year in many ways. I sincerely thank you for this, and also thank you for being such great supporters. Your letters, cards phone calls, and words of encouragement are always accepted in love and appreciation. God bless you!!

My personal experiences in the Lord are great. Each day is a new challenge and adventure in His Service - each day gives me something worth living and serving for.

I will list for you some of the things you have permitted me to participate in as your leader. This covers June 1988 through May 1989.

1)	June	C.E. Convention - NC Conference
	July	Camp Meeting
	August	Sharing our Women's Ministries concept with another denominational group
	September	Attended seven District Conferences
		Attended G.E.M.S. Leadership Seminar, Lake City, S.C.
	October	Feast of Ingathering at Holmes and Emmanuel
	November	Harvest Train, Falcon
	January	President's Council, Oklahoma City, Ok.
	February	Evangelism Rally

	Mission Seminar
March	NCWM Retreat, Goldsboro
	Presented Chrismon Seminar/Workshop for the Methodist denomination, Pine Level
April	G.E.M.S. Retreat/Convention
	Christian Workers Institute
May	Chrismon Workshop for the South Carolina W.M. Convention, Lake City, SC

2) I participated in 9 W.M. Founder's Day observances and 2 GEMS Day celebrations.
3) I have visited local W.M. and GEMS groups.
4) I have attended District W.M. and GEMS Rallies.
5) I have been in many Board and Committee meetings throughout the year.

IT HAS BEEN A GOOD YEAR.

REPORTING

We compile our records from the local W.M. reports we receive. I strongly urge all presidents to check to see that reports are coming to the office - Mrs. Linda Thomas. She will be available to assist or help any local secretary/treasurer who needs advise on reporting.

G.E.M.S. - Girls Entering The Master's Service

This has been a year of renewal for the girls organization. The new GEMS program is being accepted with much excitement and enthusiasm.

The conference GEMS Director, Mrs. Karan Barnhill, her board - Sarah Brafford, assistant director; and Patsy Deese, Secretary-treasurer have committed themselves to this ministry. They along with the GEMS district directors are making a difference for our N.C. girls.

The GEMS retreat/convention had 419 registered girls and sponsors. It was inspirational, informative and enjoyed by all who attended.

We urge you report to Mrs Deese so that your Girls will be recognized as a GEMS group.

EXPRESSIONS OF APPRECIATION

1) The NCWM Board, Mrs. Westa Barefoot, Mrs. Linda Thomas, Mrs. Regina Whitfield, and Mrs. Beverly Barts have served well. Each lady has contributed also as W.M. Conferences Directors of Missions, Children's Home, Education and Sharing Sisters. I personally could not do my job without the help and support these lovely ladies give. THANK YOU!!

2) To Mr. Leggett our Conference Superintendent; I feel I speak for all our ladies when I say we do appreciate your support throughout the year. We are especially grateful for the way you helped us reach our Feast of Ingathering offering and exceeding our goal.

3) To the NCWM District Directors; thank you for keeping our program and project ministries before your ladies in each district. You are extensions of my office and responsibilities, that are so necessary. THANK YOU !!

4) To the GEMS Board and District Directors; Thank you for making this year such a good year for the GEMS program in the North Carolina Conference. I believe we will become a stronger organization through your leadership.

5) To Mrs. Faye Leggett our MWF Director and her committee; Your work has not gone unnoticed. We appreciate your contributions toward making this an effective program in our conference.

6) To each local W.M. President, local boards, local memberships; You are the strength behind those who have served in elected or appointed positions. You are the ladies who really make things happen in the North Carolina Women's Ministries. I love and appreciate you so much for your faithfulness.

Last but not least, we would like to pay tribute to Miss Ethel Strickland who died on January 25, 1989. She served as President of the North Carolina Conference Woman's Auxiliary in 1946, but is best known for her missionary work in China.

I believe if we could hear any of these ladies say anything to those of us here today, they would say, "keep being faithful and true to the Lord and to His work. No matter what sacrifices you make, or trials and tests you encounter, it will be worth it all when you see Jesus".
